Romans 8:37 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.

The very nature of coming to Christ is the admission of my _____! – Psalm 73:26; Matthew 9:12–13; Proverbs 28:13; 2 Corinthians 1:8–9; Philippians 4:13

We are not called to success; we are called to be _____! – Hebrews 12:11

"I would rather see a sermon than hear one." – Edgar Guest

How a Christian responds to and thrives in times of suffering is the _____ witness to the world of a loving, caring, and intimate God! – Philippians 2:6–7

As a Christian, it's not what we gain but what He _____ through us that matters!

"God called Jesus to unmitigated disaster; Jesus Christ called His disciples to come and see Him put to death; He led every one of those disciples to the place where their hearts broke. The whole thing was an absolute failure from every standpoint but God's, and yet the thing that was the biggest failure from man's standpoint was the ultimate triumph from God's, because God's purpose was not man's.

Sum up the life of Jesus Christ by any other standard than God's, and it is an anticlimax of failure. "It is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful" – not successful." – Oswald Chambers

Every Christian Must Face Their Failures!
