THE FOUR-FOLD DIMENSION OF A MAN

As go dads, so goes the _____!

Satan's strategy has been consistent: Destroy the home and you _____ the Church!

Genesis 1:24-28, 31; 2:15, 18-19, 21-24

Only through submission to God's Word and _____ to the direction of the Holy Spirit can marriage reach its greatest fulfillment!

The four-fold dimension of a man is God's _____ for the home! – Genesis 1:28

Men of God are created to be …

1. _____! – Genesis 18:19

Man has been tasked by God to be the _____ leader of the home!

Ladies, praying for and allowing your husband to _____ the home is the way God has designed for him to take the _____.

Husbands, spiritual dereliction or abdication of your God given role adds _____ stress to your upon your wife, marriage, and greatly affects the _____ of your children!

God defines manhood: "Being a man is taking the spiritual _____ and accountability of your family!"

Before a man can _____ his home, he must first learn to _____ God!

2. Load _____! – Matthew 11:28–30

Jesus is the role model of God ordained _____! – Pr. 3:10

Men of God demonstrate their Christ followership through the prioritization of …

1) _____ within the home!
2) Family _____ time!
3) Sacrificial _____!
4) Sensitivity to the _____ needs of each family member!

3. _____! – 1 Peter 3:8–9

The five concentric circles of God's design for the Family:

1) The inner 1st circle represents your intimacy with _____!

2) The 2nd circle represents your intimacy with your _____!

3) The 3rd circle represents your intimacy with your _____!

4) The 4th circle represents your intimacy with other _____ through your local _____!

5) The 5th circle is your approach to the _____! – Which has _____ intimacy attached to it.

The fifth circle does have a mandate associated with it: To _____! – Acts 1:8

4. Light _____! – Matthew 5:14–16

People are _____ to the light!

"Train up a child in the way he should go—but be sure you go that way yourself." – Charles Spurgeon