THE CHURCH WANTS TO KNOW!

Proverbs 2:3-5

2 Timothy 3:16–17

8. Will sacrifices resume in the Millenium?

_____! According to several Old Testament prophecies, animal sacrifices will resume during the millennium as a _____ rather than a way to take away sin!

The Millenium is the one thousand year _____ of Christ that immediately follows His 2nd Coming to earth!

At Christ's 2nd Coming, He will fulfill all prophecy of reigning from Jerusalem _____ David's Throne!

2,000 years ago, when Christ entered Jerusalem, this is the prophecy they thought was being fulfilled when we celebrate _____ Sunday!

Sacrifices during the Millennium serve at least two purposes:

1) As a memorial and _____!

These sacrifices do not _____ Christ's finished work on the cross!

Just as the Lord's Supper serves as a physical reminder for us today, future sacrifices are nothing more than an _____ lesson for the high cost of sin while living in our mortal bodies!

Animal sacrifice _____ removed sin that spiritually separated a person from the Lord! – Hebrews 10:3-4

2) _____ of Old Testament prophecy!
Isaiah 56:6-8, Zechariah 14:16-21; Jeremiah 33:15-18

9. How do I know what my spiritual gifts are?

First, it is important to understand that we receive our spiritual gifting at _____ through the promise of the Holy Spirit!

Our gifting _____ or may _____ be aligned with our natural abilities!

God will reveal your unique gifting in time through _____ to the basic tenants of the faith!

The first acts of obedience include:

1) Following Christ in believers _____!
2) _____ to congregational worship where our unique giftings are meant to be applied!
3) Passionately pursuing _____ Bible study, worship, humility, and a growing prayer life!
4) Stepping up to serve in ministries throughout the church to see where you _____! – Romans 12:4-8 {Page 1724 Pew Bible}

We are not called to operate _____ within the confines of our unique gifting, God often calls us to serve in capacities as need necessitates!

10. How do we deal with people that say they are Christians but don't act like it?

First, when dealing with a person like this, _____, you were probably one of those people at some point in your faith journey!

Second, in your disappointment, don't give way to feelings that lead to actions that are equally _____ in God's eye! – Ps. 94:1–2; Pr. 13:10

Third, remember your _____!

My identity is that I am a _____ of God! – And that is _____!

You will not receive the _____ of God's blessing if you surrender to a critical, bitter, and judgmental spirit due to the actions of others! _____ to forgive as you have been forgiven!

11. I would like to know more about the Catholic faith: Our differences, where the apocrypha came from, and are Catholic's going to Heaven?

First, there are _____ authorities in the Catholic church verses just _____ in the evangelical and protestant church!

For us, the _____ authority is God's Word!

For a Catholic, their authority is _____ out in three equal and yet separate authorities working together to guide their faith:

1. The Sacred Scripture!

Catholics view the Bible as completely true and sacred, but they read it alongside Church _____ rather than alone.

2. Sacred Tradition!

_____ to Scripture, these include worship practices and customs that Jesus gave to the first apostles and adaptations through the centuries permitted by the Pope and the Holy See.

3. The Pope and Magisterium!

The official _____ office of the Church.

They are tasked with the responsibility to interpret the Bible and Tradition correctly as it applies to believers in _____ times.

This is why various Popes and the Catholic Church as a whole have often _____ their theology stances on an array of issues.

When a Pope teaches a definitive rule on faith or moral, Catholics believe the Holy Spirit protects him from making an _____.

Second, Where did the apocrypha come from?

It essentially makes up the _____ pages in your Bible between Malachi and Matthew.

Most theologians have determined the Apocrypha is uninspired and supports _____ Roman Catholic dogma.

It does provide us with rich historical information illuminating our understanding of the New Testament – like the works of _____!

The 27 books of the New Testament were officially canonized in the 300's. – The evaluation process for canonization was evaluated on several key components:

1) Was the author an apostle or have a close _____ with an apostle?
2) Is the book being accepted by the body of Christ at _____?
3) Did the book contain _____ of doctrine and orthodox teaching?
4) Did the book bear _____ of high moral and spiritual values that would reflect a work of the Holy Spirit?

Third, are Catholics going to Heaven?

_____! – If they have placed their faith in Christ through repentance!